D&L Pro Tennis Academy RPDC Selection Process September 2024

Congratulations on being selected by the LTA on their National Pathway Longlist and for considering Delgado & Lee Tennis Academy for the next phase of your development. Our academy is very fortunate to be based at Bisham Abbey National Sports Centre, home to numerous Olympic sports, National governing bodies, within a truly world class facility.

We very much look forward to meeting you and talking about your future development.

Key factors for consideration by the team for selected players will be:

- We have 12 Full-Time Player packages available within our RPDC Programme for September 2024, as well as Access packages.
- We strive to create a high performance environment that nurtures HAPPY but GRITTY players, through hard work, purposeful training and a person first approach
- Once the application process has begun, you will be in communication with the Programme Manager, Director of Tennis or Senior RPDC Coach throughout. All decisions will be communicated in writing.
